
Susan C. Raser

Executive Assistant Director Criminal Operations Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Special Agent Raser is currently the Executive Assistant Director (EAD) for Criminal Operations. In this capacity, she directs Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) investigative activities to defeat criminal threats facing the Department of the Navy (DON) personnel, equipment and facilities; establishes NCIS criminal investigative and crime reduction priorities and performance requirements, oversees Criminal Operations and Investigations Directorate strategic planning efforts, and advises the NCIS Deputy Director on all aspects of the Criminal Investigations Program. Additionally, Special Agent Raser leads the criminal investigations outreach program to establish, enhance and influence NCIS engagement activities worldwide to increase the effects of NCIS investigative operations.

Special Agent Raser was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in November 2011 and has 21 years of Federal Service.

From November 2010 through September 2011, Special Agent Raser served as the Deputy Inspector General, NCIS, responsible for inspection of field and headquarters components as well as investigations involving employee misconduct. Prior to that assignment, in August 2008, Special Agent Raser was selected as Deputy Assistant Director for the Criminal Investigations Program with responsibilities for manning, training and equipping over 400 billets worldwide.

Special Agent Raser's previous assignments include Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director for Operations and Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director for Management and Administration.

Special Agent Raser began her law enforcement career in 1980 as a reserve police officer with the City of Orange (CA) Police Department and in 1981 became a police officer for the City of San Clemente (CA). In 1991, she became a Special Agent with the NCIS.

Throughout her NCIS career, Special Agent Raser has served in numerous field locations including Marine Corps Base El Toro, Mare Island Naval Shipyard, and Fleet Activities Sasebo, Japan. Her follow-on assignment included a move to NCIS Headquarters, Washington, D.C., where she served as the Program Manager for Sex Crimes and Family Violence. Special Agent Raser was subsequently selected as Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) for the Crimes Against Persons Branch at NCISHQ, and later assumed duties as the SSA at the NCIS Resident Agency, Marine Corps Base Quantico. She served as the temporary Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) of the Washington D.C. Field Office, and as ASAC of the Hawaii Field Office before returning to NCISHQ, Washington, D.C. in 2007.

Special Agent Raser attended the University of California, Irvine, and graduated in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in social ecology with an emphasis in criminal justice.

Ms. Raser was awarded Special Agent Credentials in 1991. Her professional affiliations include the Liaison Officers' Association, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers' Association, and Women in Federal Law Enforcement.